

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1909.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JUNE 12, 1906.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

BY THE SATISFIED MAN.

It is sad to see the sorrow that so many people
On account of the proportions of their chests—
How they get around and hustle to develop bone
And muscle
And subject themselves to awful strains and Toils
There may be no real occasion for the same, but No persuasion
Will induce them any exercise to shirk.
They are so blamed energetic when they try to be athletic
That they haven't any energy for work.
There are others, slightly meager, who are feverishly eager
To acquire a score of pounds or so of fat.
So they try an oily diet and indulge in rest and quiet.
Though they seldom gain a single ounce by that.
While their brothers, stout and placid, try to banish themselves with acid
And starvation their fine substance to reduce,
But to find they do not lighten, and their waistcoats daily tighten,
That their mortifying isn't any use.
I quite fail to comprehend them: nature never could intend them
To be anything but frail or lean or stout,
And to try their plans to alter should make even the bravest falter—
She's a lady that it never pays to flout.
I should think I was demented if I could not be contented—
Satisfied with what I measured or I weighed—Yet my harsh opinions soften, for it isn't very often
It has happened that a man like me is made.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster Barbour have taken up their residence for the summer at beautiful Hayswood.

The officers and Directors of the Board of Trade are requested to meet at John Duley's office, Court street, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mr. James A. Wallace of this city has disposed of his one-sixteenth part in coal and mineral lands in Northeastern Kentucky to Mr. John C.
Mayo, the Big Sandy millionaire, for $1,500 cash.

Mr. John Downton of the East End, who has been sick for the past eight months with dropsy, is suffering untold agony. Passers on the sidewalk can hear him praying and calling on the Lord to take him and relieve him of his terrible suffering.

TO THE PUBLIC

There will be an exhibition of all work done in the Public Schools Wednesday afternoon, June 13th, from 1 to 3 o'clock. All are invited to call and examine the work.
D. S. CLINGER, Superintendent.

Police Court.

There was something doing in the Police Court yesterday, and when the day was over Judge Whitaker was as tired as a cornfield darkey after a hard day's work.

Alice Armstrong, William Varmill and wife, James Gates, George Cull, Cecil Burden, all for breach of the peace. Sis Porter, Charles Lightfoot, Mrs. Mary Barnes, Lena Davis and Alva Reckett, all disorderly conduct.

The testimony in some of the cases was rich, rare and racy.

The Commonwealth case of Henry Withers for cutting Sam Ellis with intent to kill—mention of which was made in yesterday's LEDGER —was continued until today and the examining trial is now in progress.

The Judge wielded a mailed hand in dealing out justice and the fines and costs amounted to nearly $100.

The Ledger Printery has just finished the elegant Diplomas for the graduates of the Colored High School. They are printed on genuine parchment—sheepskin. When you can't get a job of printing done elsewhere please remember that the Ledger Printery can do it, and do it right.

Sunday while traversing Sixth street Gertrude, the bright little six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Downey of East Second street, was attacked by a vicious dog and severely bitten in several parts of her person. The dog was afterwards killed, but that does not mend matters. There are decidedly too many worthless and dangerous canines allowed to roam at large in the city, anyway. It should not end in the fact that the owner has paid a tax on the dog, but in cases like the above he should be compelled to pay damages for injury to person or apparel. Damages can be recovered from the owner of a sheep-killing dog and it should be the same in cases like the above.

Beautiful Beechwood.

Everybody delighted. Not a dull moment in the hour of high class vaudeville at Beautiful Beechwood this week, the program being one that is especially pleasing and attractive. The great Onzor, opening the show with their clever contortion work, have many new and startling features in their act. Then comes Adelyn, the charming little wooden shoe huck and wig dancer, who instantly captivates the audience with her singing and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carter, in the unique musical novelty, "Music for Laughter's Sake," have a twenty minutes sketch that's brimming full of comedy, and a variety of musical numbers on different instruments, making altogether a most pleasing bill that should crowd the Casino every night.
A visit to Beautiful Beechwood is a delight at any time. We suggest that you try it.

EVERY citizen of Mason county should be enthusiastic with reference to Home-Coming Week, which begins on next Monday, June 18th, continuing through the entire week. The only public entertainment, however, will be on Wednesday, the 20th, at Beechwood Park. Doubtless large numbers of visitors will be in our city. Let us arrange to give them a welcome that will be long remembered. Bear in mind that they are to be our guests, and we must extend to them a most cordial reception.

DURING the discussion in the House of a bill to provide for the President's expenses, Mr. WILLIAMS of Mississippi thought that there was too much mystery surrounding the position of the President. He believed that if there was less concealment regarding the President's movements, there would be a less desire on the part of madmen, Anarchists and fools to do the President bodily harm. He told of the unceremonious way in which General GRANT moved about the streets of Washington; how he used to buy a cigar at a well known cigar store, patronize a well known cafe where steamed oysters are served, and lived a life almost like that of the private citizen. He believed if members of Congress were hedged about like the President that they, too, might be "marked men," but it was their freedom to come and go as they pleased that was their strongest protection. However, Mr. WILLIAMS should remember that there never has been but one General GRANT—and probably there may never be another.

KENTUCKY is ably represented on the Eastern racetracks by Congressmen JOE RHINOCK and OLLIE JAMES. Still, they are quite as useful there to their constituents as they would be in their seats in the House of Representatives, knowing more about "bookmaking" than law-making.

FOR political purposes only, the Board of Public Service in Cincinnati placed a very competent Watchmaker and Jeweler in charge of the Water-Works; and it turned out, as usual, that a man who could make a watch couldn't make a pump force water into a reservoir. The result of this "reform" was that a greater part of Cincinnati was without water for nearly two days.

THE gross indebtedness of New York is greater than that of the Chinese Empire. The cost of operating the city's government for one year almost equals the annual expenditures of both London and Paris combined. New York pays out in salaries alone the vast sum of $65,000,000 yearly, or as much as London spends for its entire administration. At the present time there are 45,000 men and women on New York's payroll. Of every $100 that a New Yorker pays in rent it is estimated that $12.25 goes into the pockets of municipal "servants."

DOWIE ON WALL STREET.

John Alexander Dowie, before he set out for his Mexican colony, talked about Wall street honesty. In conclusion he said—

"Yes, my friend, the honesty of these financiers reminds me of that of the tramp who found a purse.

"Two tramps entered a railway station to get a drink of ice water, and one of them, seeing a richly dressed woman drop her pocket-book, picked it up and returned it to her.

"His companion was enraged and shocked.

"Don't you know better," he cried, "than to give back a purse like that? Why didn't you keep it for yourself, you dolt?"

"Ah, John," said the other, 'honesty is the best policy when a policeman is lookin', and besides there was nothin' in the purse.' "

ITCHING SCALP
FALLING HAIR

Came Out Constantly—Hair Finally Had to Be Cut to Save Any—Scalp Now in Good Condition and No More Itching—Another Effective

CURE BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I will gladly give you all the information concerning my case. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for a diseased scalp, dandruff, and constant itching of hair. Finally I had to cut my hair to save any at all. Just at that time I read about the Cuticura Remedies. Once every week I shampooed my hair with the Cuticura Soap, and I used the Ointment twice a week. In two months' time my hair was long enough to do up in French twist. That is now five years ago, and I have a lovely head of hair. The length is six inches below my waist line, my scalp is in very good condition, and no more dandruff or itching of the scalp. I used other remedies that were recommended to me as good, but with no results. If you wish to publish any of what I have written you, you are welcome to do so. I am, respectfully, Mrs. W. E. Griess, Clay Center, Neb., Oct. 23, 1905."

The Liquor Question

Mr. Editor: A very interesting address was delivered at the meeting of the National Liquor Dealers' Association, held in Louisville Tuesday, June 5th. As I suppose that the printed copy of the address is correctly reported in the issue of The Courier-Journal of the 6th, and fearing that your readers missed this matchless piece of oratory, I am asking permission and space for a few short extracts, together with such comments as may seem appropriate to the subject.

In the preamble, or rather introduction, we find these words:

"From time to time during the past seventy-five or one hundred years waves of public sentiment antagonistic to the manufacture and sale of wine and other alcoholic beverages have passed over this country, leaving in their train state, county and municipal legislation of a more or less drastic character—legislation that was bound to fail of its purpose in practically nearly every instance—and this because the sentiment that compelled it was a sentiment engendered by agitation, and totally unripe for its enforcement."

Just a word or two in reply to that: If the agitation and legislation of a hundred years has been with so little practical results, and the progress of the Liquor Juggernaut of destruction has been so little impeded in its death-dealing powers, why the necessity of this pleading to the public?

"It is far easier to pass a law than to enforce a law, and this more especially when the purpose of the law is to deprive a man of what he believes to be an inherent right—a right that is guaranteed by all free institutions—a right to be a sovereign to himself. Experience has shown that when a man has voted for prohibition it is invariably for the benefit of others and not for himself, for no man seems to really believe that society can order his life more wisely than he can order it, and for this reason all prohibitory laws, be they passed by the people of Maine, or of Kansas, or of Iowa, have in each case become dead letters on the statute books; demoralizing to order, destructive of revenue and at war with common sense and good citizenship."

Yes, indeed! The red-handed Anarchist is to go scott free, kill when and where he will, because he "believes that he has an inherent right" to kill! Does the Liquor Association mean to claim for itself under cover of the words "all free institutions" a government that is to exist in defiance of the laws of every civilized government? Hardly, I think; and yet that is the precise kind of government that the whole liquor business has attempted to set up, and which, thank God! has thus far only proved to be an attempt. And so the laws of Maine, Kansas and Iowa against the traffic have been palpable and complete failures in the suppression, either wholly or in part, of the success of the liquor business! Why, then, my brother man, do you make such an ado about nothing? Why not let the poor deluded mortals go on in the making of laws "in each and every case dead letters on the statute books?" Why do you waste your vital breath in pronouncing against prohibitory enactments if they "don't cut any ice" or interfere with your increased success? Change that tone—it's entirely out of date, and you do not believe what you say! And so prohibitory laws are "demoralizing to order, destructive of revenue and at war with good citizenship?" Well, I have learned something! Really, now, I had not heard that the Liquor Dealers' Association had gone into the Sunday-school business; and so selling liquor and making drunkards and demons is conducive to "order?" Why did you not say that without it "no man could enter into the kingdom of God?" You are mistaken; you are recruiting for another country! Isn't this refreshing? "Destructive of revenue!" Every man of this whole tribe breaking his neck to pay taxes for the support of his country! Is it not a fact that the recent Legislature passed a law—calling an unwilling lot of men in extra session to do it—to prevent further stealing from the state, and forcing these gentlemen to pay up in full? "At war with common sense and good citizenship." That's a corker! You mean destructive of common sense and good citizenship is the nefarious business represented by yourself! Why not organize an institution, build places of worship, and have an altar or holy place a demijohn of whiskey or a keg of beer? It is a pity that so much piety should run to waste!

"That prohibitory laws are all evaded is clearly shown by the fact that notwithstanding the adoption of prohibition by a number of states and by innumerable counties until at the present time it is unlawful to sell wines or spirits in more than one-half of the geographical limits of the United States, the demand for such beverages has increased in almost the same proportion as our population, from the legitimate trade, and in an enormously greater proportion from illicit distillers and retailers."

So prohibitory laws only result in "increasing the demand for such beverages;" then why don't you spend your time and money in enlarging the prohibition territory? Simply because you know that you are not telling the truth! I am truly glad that you admit "there is something doing" in "more than one-half of the geographical limits of the United States." With increased and increasing momentum the work is going forward, and the next address delivered before your Association, you will be able to add that "more than two-thirds of the geographical limits" have been brought under the helpful influence of prohibition. Why should you care, if it helps your business? That was an unkind remark of yours about your brethren, "illicit distillers and retailers!" You ought to make apology to them for that cruel statement.

"We shall not be so uncharitable as to contend that the agitation from which this public sentiment originates owes its persistent recurrence to mercenary motives on the part of the men who make merchandise of aroused emotions because it gives a pleasurable excitement to women who tire of the monotony of home, but on the contrary we shall be candid in the admission that there is good and sufficient reason for an arousing of public sentiment in this country, and we confess a feeling of sympathy with the movements for the uplifting of mankind and for the purification of society."

Isn't that very much like an extract from an orthodox sermon? The devil has always had a few fairly good preachers in his business; not the Preachers of the Gospel, but the other kind; say Mr. Taylor as an example. He is, in all probability, a hackalidden Christian—a long way back. Yes, the poor women are "tired of the monotony of home," such a home that is more nearly a hell because of the kind help of the liquor business! And you are in "sympathy with the movements for the uplifting of humanity and for the purification of society." I wish that I could believe what you say. Prove your sincerity by abandoning the business that would be so beneficial in the "uplift."

In the next paragraph Mr. Taylor favors the White Ribbon Movement, the Blue Ribbon Movement, and even the Anti-Saloon Movement, speaks words of disapproval concerning drunkenness, disreputable saloons, and then follows these words: "and we, the delegates to this convention of the wine and spirit trade, desire to express in no uncertain tones our entire sympathy with the efforts that have been, or may be, put forth to exterminate the evils, and our willingness to lend co-operation and assistance in every means in our power."

That is equal to the most rabid utterance of a temperance "fanatic." But Mr. Taylor does not mean a single word of what he says; the strange thing is that he expects anybody of sound mind to believe what he says! Now hear him again: "We do not desire to deceive or to mislead, nor to be misunderstood, and in all candor we declare our views to be as follows: We believe that wines and spirits are blessings per se, intended by an Allwise Providence to bring health and happiness to mankind." So that is your creed. Now I understand you thoroughly. The Anarchist would put it thus: "We believe that the killing of Kings and rulers is a blessing per se, and will contribute to the bringing of health and happiness to the rest of us who are alive!" Of course, he does not take the name of the Almighty in his business; in that respect his honor is superior to yours.

But, Mr. Editor, I have not commented on quite one-half of the address; to include the whole would be an imposition on your pages. It will be sufficient to add that in the remaining paragraphs, Mr. Taylor treats of the Mission of Wines and Spirits, Saloon Workingman's Club, Intoxication Should be a Crime, Remedies Practical, etc.

Every one of these paragraphs is as far from the truth as the ones above noted and quoted, but they are interesting reading, and if your readers demand more of the kind given in this article, let me know, and I will certainly be delighted to serve up the dish in a way that will satisfy the most exacting epicure.

MASON'S HOME-COMING

A Few Words of Instruction to Our County Friends

The Home-Coming Committee has invited Judge C. D. Newell to deliver the address of welcome at Beechwood Park June 20th, and Hon. Augustus E. Willson of Louisville the response. Mr. Willson was born in this city and has "made good" in the legal profession.

Mrs. Craven, daughter of Mrs. Charles E. Tabb of Cincinnati, will sing an original Kentucky song.

It may not be generally known, but it is a fact, that the Home-Coming invitations have been mailed and a fresh supply ordered printed to supply the continued demand.

The Ladies' Committee on dinner is getting along nicely, and no visitor will be permitted to leave the Park hungry.

Schmitt's famous band is coming and the finest music is assured. The fireworks at night will be seen for miles and worth going miles to see.

The following names were given me by Mrs. John M. Hunt, Chairman of the Ladies' Committee of Mason County's Home-Coming, as those of the ladies from the different sections of our county who will work in conjunction with them towards the success of this affair.

They are as follows—

Mrs. James S. Asbury, Fernleaf.
Mrs. C. T. Calvert, Germantown.
Mrs. A. F. Carran, Dover.
Mrs. Scott Stevenson, Murphysville.
Mrs. W. H. Hord, Orangeburg.
Mrs. C. C. Degman, Springdale.
Mrs. R. M. Harrison, Wedonia.
Mrs. Scott Osborne, Tuckahoe.
Mrs. Frank Goodwin, Rectorville.
Mrs. John Worthington, Hilltop.
Mrs. John Perrine, Moransburg.
Mrs. W. E. Clift, Millcreek.
Mrs. I. N. Watson, Shannon.
Mrs. Dr. Alex. Hunter, Washington.
Mrs. Alex. Marshall, Lewisburg.
Mrs. Gus Brooks, Mayslick.
Mrs. C. C. Arthur, Sardis.
Mrs. William Luttrell, Helena.
Mrs. Thornton King, Minerva.

The purpose of this Committee is for each member to get as many families interested as possible and have them to come in on the 20th.

An erroneous impression seems to be abroad that the country people must bring their dinners and hand them over to a Committee, who will take charge of same and spread them for the crowd in general, but such is not the case.

The real intention is to have all families bring their dinners and spread them when and where they please, and confine them to their immediate families and friends, consulting their own pleasure in the matter.

A. M. JANUARY, Secretary.

The same with Book and Job Printing. The right kind, free from typographical errors, and done by skilled workmen, at Ledger Printery. Work done when promised.

The public is cordially invited to visit the various school buildings tomorrow and examine the exhibits of pupils.

Mr. G. H. McKibben of Augusta has been appointed Administrator of his brother, J. A. McKibben, deceased, with A. B. Rateman as surety.

Prof. R. Edwin Boggs, educated at the Blind Institute, Louisville, will lecture at the Lawrence Creek Church Wednesday night. No admission charged, but a collection will be taken after the service.

Rev. F. M. Hill of Richmond will preach the reopening sermon at the Sardis M. E. Church, South, June 24th. There will be no all day service on Sunday. Dinner served on the grounds. All are cordially invited.

Those who attended services at the Christian Church Sunday night had the pleasure of hearing Miss Lelia Wheeler in sacred song. Miss Wheeler has on various occasions charmed and delighted critical Maysville audiences, but since her last appearance in this city her highly cultured voice has increased in tone and volume. Clear, sweet and bird-like, her silvery voice compassing the range of notes from the highest to the lowest, rises and falls in ecstatic sweetness. It was a musical treat enjoyed by a cultivated and appreciative audience. Miss Wheeler is in charge of the vocal department of Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga., the first ever chartered to bestow degrees upon females. The College was founded in 1836. She has won her position in the front rank of her profession by diligence and innate worth.

Miss Ione M. Bonn of West Union, O., was killed Sunday at Newburgh, N. Y., during a storm by a falling tree. Miss Bonn, who was 24 years old and a graduate of Oxford (O.) College, was in company with her father and mother. While walking along the street a large tree was blown down by the gale and fell on Miss Bonn's head.

NEVER CAME BACK!

Just One Small Incident in the Printer's Experience

Comin' With the Money.

"Say, Mister Printer Man, what will it cost me to advertise my Unexcelled Goosefeather Renovator in your paper?" inquired a large, big-voiced visitor t'other day.

It wasn't a U. G. R. that he wanted to advertise, but the name will do just as well.

The Printer Man started his Recollector on the back track, and when it had reeled off nearly five years he ventured to answer—

"Well, it never has cost you anything, and I presume you want the same terms now."

"Why, what do you mean?" asked the prospective patron.

"Well," meekly ventured the Printer Man, "you haven't paid for the advertising I did for you in 1901."

"What? 'Sthats? Well, I declare! How much is it? It must be paid! Paid right away! What did you say it was?"

This charge of rapid-fire interrogations and exclamations was delivered at short range, and being informed that the exact amount was $2.20 without the five years' interest, he started for the street, and

"I'll go right now and get the money!" was the promising song that lingered in his wake.

That was days ago.

He evidently lost his way, for he is now "patronizing" in another field.

NOT STARVED OUT.

"Since it has been asked by many 'Why did you starve your preacher out?' Such is not the case, for my salary has been over paid each year of my Pastorage. I have never served a more generous and loyal people than those of Sedden M. E. Church.

The membership and congregation has grown each year of my Pastorage. The outlook is more hopeful than it has been for some years. I have never lived in a town or city in which I would rather live than Maysville.

My going from this Church and town is for the health of my family. Kentucky is my native state and home.

I love Kentucky and no truer and better people have ever lived.

Twenty of the best years of my life have been spent in the Kentucky Conference and when I sever my connection from it it is like severing the tie that binds me to my mother.

When urinary disorders set in.
Women's lot is a weary one.
There is a way to escape these woes.
Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills.
Have cured women here in Maysville.
This is one Maysville woman's testimony.
Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 22 East Fourth street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"The prompt and thorough action of Doan's Kidney Pills should recommend them to every one suffering from backache or kidney troubles. I have known the value of this remedy for several years. Its use in my case proved to me that it is a reliable kidney cure and cannot be excelled for backache or weakness of the kidneys. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills before and I should advise every sufferer to get a supply at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore and try them."

Good News for Shoe Buyers!

BOSTON, MASS., June 8th, 1906.

W. H. Means, Maysville, Ky.:

Make special sale. Cut prices on all shoes on hand. I have made some very big purchases at prices lower than ever before. Make room for them.

DAN COHEN.

THE ABOVE TELEGRAM EXPLAINS ITSELF, AND IS GOOD NEWS for SHOE BUYERS.
